There were 2,417 new cases of cholera and 952 deaths reported Monday in Spain. In Madrid, 19 new cases and 13 deaths were reported. The scourge has invaded Guadalajara, Burcos and Almeria.

According to a late report, there are 30 post offices in the United States which pay salaries of less than one dollar (each. But democrats won't even stick up their ucses at a dollar office.

A wealthy Cuban has fitted out a steamer solely for the purpose of catching sharks. His object is to make a bloody war on the vercious creatures and expects to kill at teast 5,000 every

The order which was said to be issued two weeks ago by the president calling a halt in removals without cause, doesn't seem to stick. Guess the president hasn't much influence with the demoeratic party this year.

The Chicago, Milwankee and St. Paul road is credited with the intention of extending its Wisconsia Valley branch into the heart of the Wisconsin pineries. It is [possible that the line will be run through to Ashland.

Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, widow of the dashing young confederate cavalry general, is visiting her father, General Philip St. George Cooke, at Detroit, Michigan. Mrs. Stuart married six months beforethe war broke out, and the father and son-in-law entered the opposing armies.

The Current of July 25, contains the mitial paper of a series, under the caption "An Ancient City," by R A. Meers, giving an account of Canterbury, the seat of the Primate of the Episcopal church of England, and its occlesisationl institutions, ruins, and other interesting

Some would-be philanthropists are trying to work up sympathy in behalf of the Indians, which won't take very much this summer. While some of the ludians have been abused, the fact is the more the United States propogates the species, the more trouble it will have with the barbarous caeatures.

Walter Doyle, of Gratiot, this state; was tatally injured while unloading hay with a hay fork. The fork slipped out of the hay and in some manner struck Doyle in the back of the neck, the beavy steel bar penetrating downward through his lungs into the liver. He removed the fork unaided.

The report that Vanderbilt has secured a controlling interest in the West Shore Road, is one of the greatest moves be has made in recent years, and, if it should turn out to be true it will make him allpowerful in the future. In fact, it gives the Peunsylvania and New York Central systems a monopoly in the passenger and freight traffic to the west."

Belva Lockwood recently delivered a lecture in Salt Lake City in which she gave it as her opinion that it was all well enough for the "nice and milk and water women" to get married and have husebands to support them in idleness," but that the "sternor members of the sex should never entertain the idea of ever getting married." All sensible men will agree with Belva that the sterner mombers like herself ought not to get married. They are not wanted as wives, for such women never build up homes.

of more highly educated people is less favorable to an extension of suffrage than it was twenty years ugo," and that the consummation which she desires and anticipates "has been set back at least auother generation by the indiscretions and shortsightedness which have accompanied this agivation." She is right, and she might with equal truth have extended the remark to prohibitionists in poli

Abraham Deuser, a German farmer, who on Sunday at Bloomington, Ill., burned his house and barn and all his live stock, to prevent his wife, who is suing for a divorce, from getting any property, and who was supposed to have himself perished in the flames, was subsequently found hiding in a clump of tall woods, and was lodged in the county jail. During the night he improvised a rope from his suspenders, a towel and a piece of cord, and hung himself from the door-frame of the cell closet, being found dead Tuesday morning.

There is hardly anything in the Pall Mali Gazette revelations more revolting than the practice, in San Francisco, of selling white onildren to Chinese. It is stated that twenty six children so disposed of have been recovered within the last year, and the presumption is that some cases have escaped detection. Of course the parents of such children must be heartless wretches, and they probably are very degraded people. It appears to have been only found out within a few months, and there is no doubt that many girls of tender years have been smuggled out of the country and taken to China.

"increasing danger to the finances and business of the country of twe country "from the continued coingo of silver. It doubters that if "the baneful effects" of the Biand bill are not arrested before next winter "the country will distelf stalking with rapid strides toward bankruptey." Customs dues, it says, are now only one-fourth in gold, and from these dans the government expects to keep up is gold fund, which on the first of July was only $22,000,000 in excess of the legal toucher reserve, a fact that caused the United States treasurer to come to Now York and confer with the bankers, who also the country will also the country will also the country will also the parents of the country will disting with rapid strides toward bankruptey." Ohief of Police Doyle has ordered a [ceived, the census takers having until August 1st to make their returns to the county clerks, while they have until the 20th to submit their reports to the secretary of state.

> Senator Frye, of Maine, like ex-Senator Hamlin, is a noted fisherman. He is now on an excursion to Canada, and recently sent a splendid salmon to a friend, with the following letter: "I am away up in the Canada woods, 300 miles north of St. John's, on one of the most beautiful rivers I ever saw. This noon at 12 o'clock a salmon took my fly, and in an hour and three-quarters I had the guff into his side, He fought for life like a king, sprung four or five feet out of the water nine tunes; I finally captured him two miles from the spot where I struck him." The salmon when taken from the box three days afterwards, weighed 26½ paunds.

Special crop reports from all the winter and spring wheat growing states to American Rural Home, state that in the northwest the winter wheat situation is generally considered favorable, but Michigan alone raises a prop equal to that of 1884. In southern Illinois, Ohio, Missouri, Kansas, Tenner. see and Kentucky, there has been no improvement in the past thirty days. In the latter two states the millers are buy ing old wheat to start up their mills. The spring wheat prospects indicate an average crop if the hot sun -does not scoreh it. The grass crop of the northwest will not equal that of 1884. Oats stand bountifully. Corn shows great improvement, having made a great gain in the last four

Dr. Leonard, the prohibition candidate for governor of Ohio, declares that rather than vote to license on intoxicate drinks he "would vote for a fountain at every street corner, from which should flow a continuous stream of whisky free to everybody, and furnish tin cups from which all who desired should drink their fill." Dr. Leonard doubtless uttered this seemingly strange deplaration when thinking of the well cetablished characteristic of human nature that makes the difficulty of attuinment the most eagurly sought; and that which is deried as is frequently the very thing we most yearn for, but when obtained is little appreciated. The demcornts thoroughly believe in the doctrine of Dr. Leonard-free whisky. But the democrats are an exception to the rule just stated, for the more free whisky they have the botter they like it.

Cau't Hit a House with a Bat. RALTINORIE, July 22.—Mr. Barnie, manager of the Orioles, is disgusted with his club. He does not object so much to their holding, but he says they cannot hit a house with a bat. There is to be held about Aug-ra meeting of the American association, when the reserve rule clause of the mational agreement will be discussed. If the rule be abelished, Barnie will secure some good league mon; if not, then he will have a league club here next summer, and will cut loose from the American association.

A MISSING PENNSYLVANIAN TURNS UP ALL RIGHT

In Time to Save His Supposed Murderers from a Possible Hanging-Jacob Walp's Plantfor Settling Domestic Infelialty.

READING, Pa., July 22.—The arrost of John Frey at Topton, this county, on the charge of murdering Jacob Walp, with whom he was bearding, had a startling sequel Monday, when his supposed victim turned up altwe and well. Monday afternoon was set as the time for the arrost of Mrs. Walp, who was accused of being Frey's accomplice. Frey has been in juil here since his arrost, loudly protesting his innocence. Topton is a small mining village, and public sentiment was strongly against Frey and Mrs. Walp, who strongly against Frey and Mrs. Walp, who were looked upon as the murderers. Mrs. Walp, a buxom woman, would have been arrosted before but for her ill health, and arrosted before but for her ill health, and her physician gave the opinion Monday that she could with safety be removed to jail.

Their accusers had the story of the murder down fine, how Walp was beaten to death late at night and his body then put secretly away. The surrounding hills and fields and the greater portion of the cellar of the house occupied by the Walps were dug up and desorted mines searched, but nobody was found. This only increased the public indignation.

Monday morning Walp put in an appearance at Flectwood, this county, alive and well. He said that he had left the house in an angry mood because his wife had shown a preference for Froy, and had since been in different places working. Ho had not heard of the arrests, but said that they would teach his wife and Frey a good lesson. He will go back to live with his wife, provided she throws Frey overboard. The district attorney had an interview with him, after which Frey was discharged from jail. He remarked that he had a narrow escaps from the gallows, because he expected to be convicted with Mrs. Walp, as public feeling had been so strongly an angry mood because his wife had shown Walp, as public feeling had been so strongly against them, although evidence was merely circumstantial.

Will Order Cattlemen Out of Indian Ter-

New York, July 22.—A Washington special to The Mail and Express says: At the cabinet meeting Wednesday the subject of ordering all cattlemen out of the Indian territory will be considered. It is probable that an agreement will be reached to do this and that a proclamation will shortly be issued by the president to carry it into effect. The leases held by the cattlemen from Indians will not be resognized by the government. Secretary Tellor, under whom the system of grazing on Indian lands reached its fullest development, never perultted the use of the word lease in any of his official correspondence on ritory. lease in any of his official correspondence on the subject. He always insisted that what the cattlemen held was merely a "license," and this he did not interfere with so long as the Indians did not make trouble, but he nover recognized any of these agreements.

Goes by Contraries.

CINCINARY, July 22.—The Enquirer's Washington City correspondent tolographs that a western representative said recently that he can always belt who will be the lucky man in a contest for offices, as follows: "Put together all the points that seem to point toward the appointment of a certain individual to office. In this should be included the promises of cabinat ministers, etc. When you have arrived at the conclusion that seems inevitable, and you believe you know what Goes by Contraries. have arrived at the conclusion that such inevitable, and you believe you know what is going to happon, sattle upon the exact opposite of that, the very thing that is the most unlike it, and you will have the result to a mathematical certainty." * * * "But I can't say any special damage to the country has been inflicted thereby. The palladium of liberty is still inviolate."

Some More Souls Made Happy. Some More Souls Made Happy.

Washington City, July 22.—The president appointed the following-named presidential postmasters Tuesday: Miles J. Finten, at Streator, Ills.; John L. Handley, at Fairfield, Ills.; S. Barclay Radobaugh, at Urbana, Ills.; Clinton Rosette, at De Kalb, Ills.; George P. Sanford, at Lansing, Mich.

Other appointments were us follows: Ill.

O Billings of Alton, Ills., chief, of the pre-O. Billings, of Alton, Ills., chief of the pro omption division of the land office, to succeed Henry Howes, removed; John McMurray, of Brockville, Pa., chief of the lands and railroad, a division of the secretary's office, to succeed Z B. Sturgis, of Indiana, removed; Charles Spalding, of Kansas, to be receiver of public moneys at Topoka, Kan.; Samuel Thanhauser, of Kansas, to be recolver of public moneys at Garden City

Will Tammany Be "Recognized." New York, July 22.—A Washington special to The Telegram says: Register Rollly, of New York, when here, called on Secretary Manning and asked whether Tammany would be recognized in the distribu-tion of the patronage of the custom house. Mr. Manning responded that he did not pronose to take any park in the fight among the New York city factions, and that he was not running the treasury department in the interest of politics. Mr. Reilly left the room in such haste that he forgot to say good-bye. The register alleger that Mr. Hubert O. THE ANGEL OF DEATH

AGAIN HOVERING OVER THE COUCH OF GENERAL GRANT.

All the Members of the Family and the Doctors Summoned to

Dr. Douglas Looking for the End in a Few Hours-Every Indication That the Old Soldier's Last Battle Is Won by the Enemy.

Mr. McGregor, N. Y., July 22.—During Tuesday aftormoon Gen. Grant sat in his chair listlessly, caring neither to move or de anything. He was in a condition not fully awake nor yet dezing, but indifferent to his surroundings. Toward evoning food was given him. He did not repel it, but had great trouble in swallowing, and fully half of it was thrown out, because of the failure of the threat muscles to act.

At dusk Gen, Grant grew very restless. He was not content to keep his chair as was the case early in the day, but wanted to move to his cot and to other chairs. He was not able to walk unaided, nor scarcely to rise, and soumed unable to compose him-self in any place five minutes at a time. It was decided about 8 o'clock to change him to the parlor, and all the family assembled there with Dr. Nowman. The general soon began to catch for breath, and there were plain signs that he was slaking. Fans were used upon him vigorously, but for half an hour the showed no improvement. Then his breathing became easier and he fell asleen. breathing became easier and he fell asleen. That was the turning point of the early evening. After that he slept and awoke at short intervals, the family going to his side whonever he awoke, not knowing what it might mean. He showed no signs of gain of strength, ulthough occasionally of repose that promised to prolong his hours. It was the opinion of Col. Grant all the evening that his father could not live through the night. Dr. Douglas says he may last twenty-four hours. U. S. Grant Jr. was summoned early in the

GEN. SHERIDAN MAKING A CENSUS OF THE CHEYENNES.

Probability That He Will Recommend the Annulment of the Cattle Leases-Intruders To Be Bounced-Twenty-Two Mexicans Killed.

CALDWELL, Kan., July 22.—The situation along the northern border of the Indian territory becomes more interesting by reason of the varied features which are developing. ritory becomes more interesting by reason of the varied features which are developing. Advices from different parts of southern Kansas indicate that all is quiet so far as the Indians are concerned, but more threatening than ever with reference to the cattletrail dispute. Gen. Sheridan expects to complete his work at Fort Rene soon, so as to return to Caldwell Thursday. He has been taking an account of stock, so to speak—e-arrolling the Cheyonnes and getting them where he can put his bands on them at very short notice. The Araphoos number 1,500 instead of 2,500, and the Cheyonnes will not show over 3,000 persons. The formidable array of United States troops along the border has apparently completely awed the Indians, who come flecking to the commanding officers with innocent faces and ask what it all means. They assume to have no thought of var, and dony that they have at any time thought of rabelling against the government authority. They are quite more than a proceeding is unnecessary. The Indians appear divided among themselves when the expediency of continuing the cut-tie leases, some maintaining that they get more for the land from the stockmen than they can hope to in any other way.

While Gen. Sheridan will not forecast his official report, it is generally understood that he will recommend that the leases with

A great many representatives of the cattle leases are in Caldwell, and they appear much agitated over the prespect, although they assert that the government has no right; in the premises under the existing state of affairs. Secretary Lamar's order, which virtually gives the infected Toxas cattle a right to cross the territory at whatever points their herders choose to run them, creates intense indignation. The Indian territory cattlemen are prepared to resist any attempts which the Toxans make to drive cattle through, except on the established trail. While the Kansas cattlemen are up in arms and declare that not one of the Lone Star eattle shall enter the state; they are picket-

While the Kansas cattlorion are up in arms and declare that not one of the Lone Star cattle shall enter the state; they are picketing all the southern counties, and the appearance of a heart of Texans on the border will most likely be the signal for war. In fact, the threatened ladien outbreak is almost lost sight of in the good prospects of a savage cattle-trail light.

Gen Miles expects to proceed at once to Fort Supply, which is on the line of the trail, and guard the Texans on their way to the Kansas border. Just what Gen Shoridan's movements will be after he returns to Caldwell cannot be stated at present. His special car awaits him here to convey him wherever he wishes to go. As Dodge City will most likely be the scene of future operations, it being the place Gen Miles will head for from Fort Supply, it is possible that Shoridan will decide to go there. The road from there to Rone is very bad. The streams are swellen by recentrains and difficult to ford. Another detachment of cavalry leaves Caldwell in the morning for Reno.

KEYS. [Bessle Chandier in The Century.] Long ago in the old Grannda, when the Moors were forced to flee. Each man locked his bome behind him, tak-ing in his flight the key.

Mopoinity they watched and waited for the time to come when they Should return from their long exile to these homes so far away. But the mausions in Granada they had left in all their prime Vanished, as the years rolled onward, 'neath the crumbling touch of time.

Like the Moors, we all have dwellings where we vainly long to bo.

And through all life's changing phases ever fast we hold the key.

Our fair country lies behind us; we are exiles, toe, in truth,
For no more shall we behold her. Our Granada's name is Youth. We have our delusive day-dreams, and ex-joice when, now and then, Some old heartstring stirs within us, and we feel our youth again.

"We are young," we cried triumphast, thrilled with old-time joys and glee, Then the dream fades slowly, softly, leaving nothing but the key!

SOLDIERING IN FORMER DAYS.

A Boston "Training Day"—The Awkward Squads and the Fun They Created.

[Boston Budget.]
Boston bas always boon noted for atten-Boston has always been noted for attention to military matters and the soldier-like qualities of its citizens. Ever since the establishment of the Ancient and Henerable Artillery company, in 1638, this martial spirit has prevailed, and from time to time new independent companies have been formed, although the Massachusetts militia, revived and thoroughly organized by Adjt. Gon. Summer, under instruction from Governor Levi Lincoln, in 1832, made a very perfect and efficient system. The general musters of the various divisions, which occurred every year, were events of great in-section the time uniforms and orthinio manures of the independent companies were so curiously contrasted with the crule inspection and drilling of the awkward squade composed of novices, that May training gradually became a burlesque of the most ridiculous description. The law required that every able-bodied citizen of 21 years and upward must, in answer to his summens, appear at a designate locality provided with musket and accourrements. The man of business, the mechanic, and the professional man would lastily leave bis. professional man would hastily leave bis store, workshop or office, and a foray would be made upon gunsmiths' shops, second-tand shops or wherever an old musket could be hired or betrever an old musket could be hired or berrowed, to secure that indispensable weapon. Garrets and attics would be ransacked, and many an old revolutionary shooting-iron would be resurrected for the occasion.

Well-drossed merchants, professional men and clerks were saudwiched in with shabby and some characteristics and some characteristics. were sandwiched in with shabby and some-times very dirty individuals, yet it added to the picturesqueness of the scene, and some of the roughest fellows contributed to the fun of the occurion their full share. One would of the occasion their full share. One would appear equipped with a rusty old gun on which was fastened an iron padlock, a skewer for a priming wire and a well-worn clothes-brush for the regulation articles. A single musket would do duty, with dexterous handling, for two or three men, particularly as the inspecting officer would wink at these minor breaches of discipline, knowing that he would be remembered after the adjournment at the nearest horel. The calling of the roll was indescribably funny, the ing of the roll was indescribably funny, the responses of "yaas," "heere," and "right," every tone of voice, from rough bass falsotto in nasal shouts, was vastly amusing, while the chaifing of officers and constables

The American Tooth Fast Disappearing. [Harper's Bazar.]
The American tooth, the dentists tell us, is something fast disappearing. What is to take its place they leave to conjecture. Whether a toothless race is on its way, or whether a new animal is to be evolved from the present human creature on this contiton present untike creature on the containment, is portuge an open question. SEDALIA, Mo., July 23.—An examination of the books of the Sedalia Savings bank, from which R. E. King, the bookkeeper, embozoled $10,000 on July 3 and abscended, revealed that there had been systematic defalentions during the last five years amounting to about $25,000, besides the $10,000 roturned, making $45,000, or nearly the capital stock of $50,000. Monday night King was arrested on a warrant sworn out by one of the director; and placed under bond of $1,500, which was alterward raised to $5,000. Officers of the bank have published a card saying that on account of serious loss by having their funds abstracted it would be necessary to suspend, but arrangements had been made to pay every dollar of the posits with interest, and all depositors could call and get their money at pleasure. The matter had been kept quiet by the bank, which had defied the reports that had gotten out, and the announcement croated out a search of the announcement croated out as search of the matter had been continued to constructed solely for the purpose; the several position of the director; and places for the wearled sight-sears, and an occasional figure posed on one of thesis is exceedingly decoptive; it is pleasant to drop on such a sear in a corner room, where the crowd is thinner, and loss yourself in fantactors. An Illinois Jurist Dying. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 22—Judge T. f.yle Dickey, of the supreme court of Illinois, is now lying at the point of death at the Read cottage on Pacific avenue in this city. The attending physician, Dr. Boardman Roed, says he can not live longer than a few days, and he may die before morning. Judge Dickey came to Atlantic City about the last of May, feeling quite upwell at the time. Dr. Roed has been in consultation with Professor F. H. Smith, of the aniversity of Pennsylvania, whose diagnosis of the case agreed with that of Dr. Roed. The exact nature of his complaint is organic heart disease, with some kidney troubles which haveleniminated in a general weakening of his constitution. During his illness he has been attended not only by his wife but by his three sisters-in-law—Mrs. J. R. Sauk, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. C. R. Stockman, at whose house he has been staying. ATLANTIC CITY, N. Ailled Shows.

There are none of the great shows traveling last season which received more general praise than that of King, Burk & Co., or that received more liberal patronage. Wherever their broad canvasses were erected they were packed to their capacity and with invariably delighted sudiences. This year they have increased their exhibition by many important additions, and come before the public stronger in startling attractions than ever. Yet, though they have done this, they are exhibiting this year at just half the old established price, and are ately? Certainly not—it does not effect only charging twenty five cents for admission. A general reduction of costs in produce an ultimate cure. ollowing giving an account of the arrangements being made for the accommodstion of visitors: The prospects for the Sunday school assembly, which will begin next Tuesday, at Lokeside, are very flattering. Over 200 tents have already been engaged, which is six times the number engaged at this time last year. Both boarding houses, which will be run by the same persons that had charge of them last year, namely, Mrs. Phillis Frawley and Mr. Charles Slightam, have been enlarged and improved, and will furnish good accommodations for guests. The children's temple is approaching completion and will prove a valuable addition. Here it is expected bundreds of children will gather each day and perticipate in the exercises of the children's class. A six-foot board fence around the grounds will make them much more private. The tabernacle which was wrecked by the late storm has been repaired, broken trees removed, so that the appearance of the grounds to day is indeed attractive. For towns near Madison, where large delegations have signified their intention to be present, a portion of the grounds will be allotted, so that all may be surrounded with their friends and (acquaintances. Evansville, Janesville and Lake Mills will be among this number, and perhaps others not yet known. Workmen have begun the construction of the kented Ecity, which, in one week's time will be all life, gaisty and pleasure. The following Milwankceans will deliver one or more addresses: C. B. Willis, the Revs. Olin A. Curtis, Goo. H Ide, D. E. Reed, M. P. Hellings and J. R. Reitzel, and Messra. A. V. H. Carpenter and W. E. Lewis.
